

Christina Chapman:

Christina Chapman is in her 20th year as a Choral Music Educator and is pleased to work with the Women's Choir at NDACDA. Mrs. Chapman started her teaching career in Plano ISD where she taught at Robinson MS for 8 years, then in Lovejoy ISD, in the Northwest DFW area for 11 years. She is currently the Choral director at Apollo Junior High STEAM Academy, in Richardson ISD.

Mrs. Chapman's Choirs are consistent Sweepstakes award winners for UIL Concert and Sight-Reading Contests and she is a sought after adjudicator for UIL Contests, Choral Festivals and Solo and Ensemble Contests.

Under her direction, the 2004 Robinson MS Tenor-Bass Choir performed at TMEA, the 2013 Sloan Creek Middle School Varsity Treble Choir performed at National ACDA at the Winspear Opera House and Meyerson Symphony Center and the 2016 Willow Springs Middle School Varsity Tenor-Bass Choir performed for the MS/JH National Conference for Choral Music held on the campus of The University of North Texas.

Mrs. Chapman has been selected as a Who's Who Among American Teachers in and as well as honored with the PTA Honorary Life Membership Award.

Mrs. Chapman holds a Bachelor of Music Education Degree with an emphasis in Vocal Performance from The University of Texas at San Antonio and is working on a Master's of Music Education Degree from Texas Tech University.

Mrs. Chapman is a member of Texas Choral Directors Association, Texas Music Educators Association, Texas Music Adjudicators Association, American Choral Directors Association, and Sigma Alpha Iota. Christina recently served the Texas Choral Directors Association as the Vice President of Middle School/Junior High Schools from 2017-2019.

Mrs. Chapman has been married to her biggest choral music supporter, Robert Chapman for 17 years and they have two handsome little Jedi Padawan boys, Aiden James 8 and Liam Spencer, 6.